EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Response to Arguments

1. In view of applicant's amendment filed 08 January 2004, the status of the application is as follows:

Claims Objections

The objections of claims 7-10, indicated as containing allowable subject matter, are withdrawn in view of Applicant's amendment incorporating claim 7 into independent claim 1. The claims now appear to be allowable.

35 U.S.C. §112 Rejections

The rejection of claim 4 is withdrawn in view of applicant's amendment to the claim.

35 U.S.C. §103(a) Rejections

The rejections of claims 1-6 are withdrawn in view of applicant's amendment incorporating indicated allowable subject matter into independent claim 1.

Examiner's Amendment

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
3. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with applicant's representative, Mr. Matthew T. Shanley, on 28 January 2004.
4. The application has been amended as follows:

Cancel non-elected claims 11-20.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
6. The closest prior art references of record, Minayoshi, Obata & Goldberg, fail to teach each and every limitation of the instant invention. Specifically, the references fail to teach the claimed washer/drying further including the evaporator being installed in the air circulating duct, the condenser being installed at a center portion of the drain hose in the water cooling tank, which is disclosed as an essential element of claimed invention, as described in newly amended claim 1 (and subsequently, claims 2-6 and 8-10 dependent thereon).
7. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
